 Sponsor will pay a fee of $300 per scholarship to the Foundation to administer the scholarship.

◆ Applicant and the Foundation will enter into an agreement which specifies the scholarship will be offered on an ongoing basis until the relationship is terminated by either party. Sponsor will agree to provide a representative to work with the Scholarship Program Director and Executive Director and Foundation staff to establish the criteria and to process the selection of recipients of the intended scholarship.

◆ Unless agreed upon by the Foundation, it is the intent that the scholarship will fall within and follow the Foundation's Scholarship Season (see document).

◆ In October of each year the responsible party/partner will be asked to confirm plans for the scholarship for the next academic year and provide any changes desired in the value, purpose, criteria and eligibility. Changes would remain in keeping with Foundation policies and be acceptable to the Foundation.

◆ Available scholarships are advertised from November through March. Applications are due March 15. Screening of candidates, interviews and selection are conducted in March and April with recipients notified prior to May 1. Funds are distributed in July and are made payable only to the recipient's school of choice.
